

Have courage; be kind; shine!

Hello

Apologies for the disruption caused by today's weather. This aside, we have had a lovely end to our term. Our assessments are showing lots of progress, and we are delighted that, thanks to your support, our over-all attendance is also improving, which means more learning time for our children.

We have been particularly pleased that our end of term assessments have evidenced strong progress in children's phonic learning... Mrs Burt has a huge smile on her face!

We hope all our families have a lovely Easter break – fingers crossed for some spring-like weather.

Thank you for all your support again this term.

Wonderful Wire Trees

Our Chestnut and Maple children (Years 3 and 4) have been on a journey to excellence in art inspired by the amazing Vanessa Stone. Mrs Buckmaster has been delighted by their beautiful creations.

Elyza – Year 3 I think the twisting for the wire trees was tricky. I loved sticking on the leaves.

Thomas – Year 4 I enjoyed positioning the branches on my wire tree and glueing the leaves on.

George W – Year 3 When I was doing my wire tree it was calming, even though it was difficult.

Lucy – Year 4 The wires were tricky because it was hard to make the base of the tree. You needed to twist the wires carefully.

#Letgirlsplay

This lovely report from our Girls' Football Leaders got accidentally deleted at the last minute from our previous newsletter! Whoops – sorry girls.

On the 8th of March, Mrs Lawlor and Mr Toomer (who are both passionate about sport and about equal opportunities) led a girls' football afternoon, ably supported by Rebecca, Mollie, Ruby, Skylar, Neve and Tayla. Here's what the girls thought...

Last Friday, all of us girls across the school got together for the country's biggest ever football session.

Last year, on the 8th of March, 285000 girls, across the country, all joined in!

In 2022, The England woman's football team won the Euros football competition. Since then the lionesses and the football association have been campaigning for equal access for girls and woman's football. We think equal access to football for girls is really important at school and at grassroots level and we wanted to inspire other girls to join clubs such as Hythe, Fawley or Totton.

Loveday – Year R: 'My favourite part was the passing in a circle, it was really fun.'

Alba – Year R: 'My favourite part was the dribbling.'

Madeline – Year R: 'I like the match - it was fun.'

Isabelle – Year 1: 'I enjoyed kicking the ball. I like football!'

Connie – Year 1: 'I enjoyed playing in goal.'

Maddison – Year 2: 'I enjoyed not getting tackled by others.'

Amy – Year 2: 'I liked scoring a goal!'

Alexa – Year 3: 'We did some shooting, passing, dribbling and some matches.'

Lucy – Year 4: 'In girls' football we were shooting into goals, passing, playing matches and tackling. We were split into our house colours and had a lot of fun.'

Phone Safety

We know that some of our older children have access to a smart phone and/or regularly access the internet through gaming or via other devices.

Like you, we have huge concerns about the potential risks of on-line bullying, of children accessing inappropriate content and of on-line stranger danger. We actively teach our children about staying safe on-line, but we don't feel this teaching on its own is nearly enough to protect them.

We also know some of our children message each other during evenings and weekends. Unsupervised messages can cause real stress. If a child receives an unkind or inappropriate message on a screen, he or she may be affected in a different way than if the comment were spoken. Sometimes comments may not be intentionally unkind, they may be intended as jokes or just be open to interpretation.

We are finding that sometimes messages will be exchanged at weekends and parents will be unaware until something is said in school and staff become involved. Occasionally a child can feel embarrassed/humiliated that their friends may have seen a particular message and not feel able to speak about it. This can mean that a child is potentially worrying without parents being able to provide reassurance. As we approach a holiday, I wanted to just draw this to your attention so that, if your child messages with friends, you might consider being extra vigilant.

Below is a link to some useful advice for parents, as well as a few top tips it might be worth being reminded of.

Keeping your child safe on their smartphone | Barnardo's \(barnardos.org.uk\)

- Be open and talk with your child about their mobile phone use.
- Keep phones out of bed.
- Explore the real world.
- Encourage children to speak up if they're feeling down.
- Set a password to prevent bullying, sexting, or breaches of private information.
- Tape a recovery phone number to the mobile.
- Set up emergency contacts.
- Set up remote locate/lock/wipe features.

Oak Class visit to the CET

We are so lucky to have our fantastic neighbours, the Countryside Education Trust, just up the road from us.

Our oldest children were recently invited by the CET to take part in an exciting new project called New Forest Song. The trust's mission is to "connect people with the countryside" and the project aims to enable children to explore their relationship with the forest and develop their own creativity with words and music. The children are working with renowned composer, Oliver Tarney; artistic director, Elinor Cooper; and a professional librettist.

Yesterday Oak class took part in a woodland session led by CET staff in the morning, as well as a creative musical session in the afternoon.

The children had a FABULOUS day and CET staff commented on their lovely behaviour and high levels of engagement.

We are looking forward to our Year 5 and 6 children joining with other schools for a massed performance in July.

Reading Café

Some of our Year 1 and 2 children have been enjoying books with their families in our before school reading café.

Reading, as you know, is our highest academic priority. We aim to do the best possible job of teaching our children how to read, but also of developing in them a real love of reading. Our Key Stage 1 staff have been delighted with the sessions and very grateful for parents' support.

Fabulous Footballers

I was pleased to be able to take two girls football teams to play against Orchard Juniors after school last Friday. It's just brilliant to have so many girls wanting to represent Beaulieu. They do so with such enthusiasm and they're so kind and encouraging to each other and their opposition. With determination, teamwork and competitiveness, they always play well, making noticeable improvements with every game. It's always a pleasure to watch and I'd like to take this opportunity to thank all the parents who support and help transport the girls to the matches.

Mollie C's team

Mollie captained one of the teams, really leading by example. She worked tirelessly, closing down the opposition and passing the ball on. Mollie helped to organise the team when changing positions and volunteered to play in positions she wouldn't have previously chosen. Several of the girls hadn't played a 'proper match' before and I was proud of how hard they all worked. They won 4-2 with Molly-May scoring an absolutely brilliant goal and Harriet on a fantastic hattrick!

Skylar's team

Skylar captained the other team superbly from defence. The whole team know that they can rely on Skylar to hold the team together and steal the ball back from the opposition, giving them the freedom to run forward. Being such an important part of the team, Skylar's persistence and calmness under pressure helped to keep a 'clean sheet'. They won 4-0 spreading the goals out across the team: Rebecca scoring a cracker from a free kick; Ruby with a neat shot; Tayla with a fantastic strike and Neve being in the perfect position to tuck away her goal. I was particularly impressed with how the team held their positions and moved together in formation, covering each other when needed - something they've been working hard on in training.

Star of the week goes to Ruby - not just for her own performance, but also for her encouragement of other girls during their training sessions (always pointing out what they're doing right and congratulating them when they do something well).

We've heard some year 2 girls have joined a local team, which is great. If you think your girl would be interested in playing with a local club, you can find them on englandfootball.com. Several local clubs have girl's sections including Totton, Hythe and Dibden, Fawley and Brockenhurst.

Mr T.

Year 6 Netballers

Mr T's report:

Our Year 6 netball team had an enjoyable afternoon of netball at Priestlands against other local primary schools. They worked incredibly hard, winning half of their matches and staying 'in the game' for the others. I was really impressed with their communication and teamwork. They were all so positive and encouraging; there were lots of smiles all round.

Josh was fantastic with his defending as GK and, also, with his shooting at the other end. Paloma and Sophie were particularly impressive with their range of passes and clever movement.

Teamwork bands were awarded to Skylar and Lily K.

Well done!

Sensational Skipping

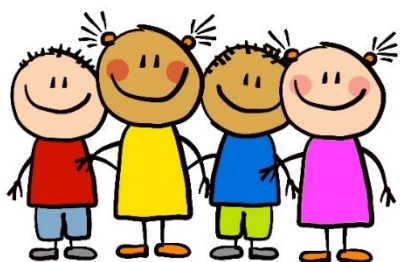

Maple and Chestnut children (and staff!) have been skipping in support of the amazing Mrs Hinton. Kathy, as you may remember, has been fighting her own health battle since the summer.

Since she began getting stronger, Kathy has wanted to give something back to the amazing team who have been supporting her. She has been doing the "100 skips a day" challenge throughout March to raise money for Cancer Research UK.

In case anyone would like to support Kathy, here are the details for her Giving Page. Thank you.
